SELECT A SOURCE:

List source citation in MLA or APA style. This will go in your Works Cited or References list:

SELECT USEFUL INFORMATION:

Quote or specific data/information from source that you will use:

Paraphrase/summarize the meaning of this quote/data:

Whether you use the direct quote or paraphrase it, you must include an in-text citation in the same style you are using for your Works Cited/References:

Discuss:

Have a conversation about this quote/paraphrase. This will be the “meat” of your paper. Some questions to consider answering (you do not have to use ALL of these in your paper; these are just ideas to get you thinking): [Use back of paper if needed.]

- Why is this significant to your paper topic? Do you agree or disagree with this information? Why?
- Does this information remind you of or connect with anything else you’ve read or viewed, or with other ideas in history, society, the arts, etc.?
- What additional questions does this information raise for you?